Wichita High School East

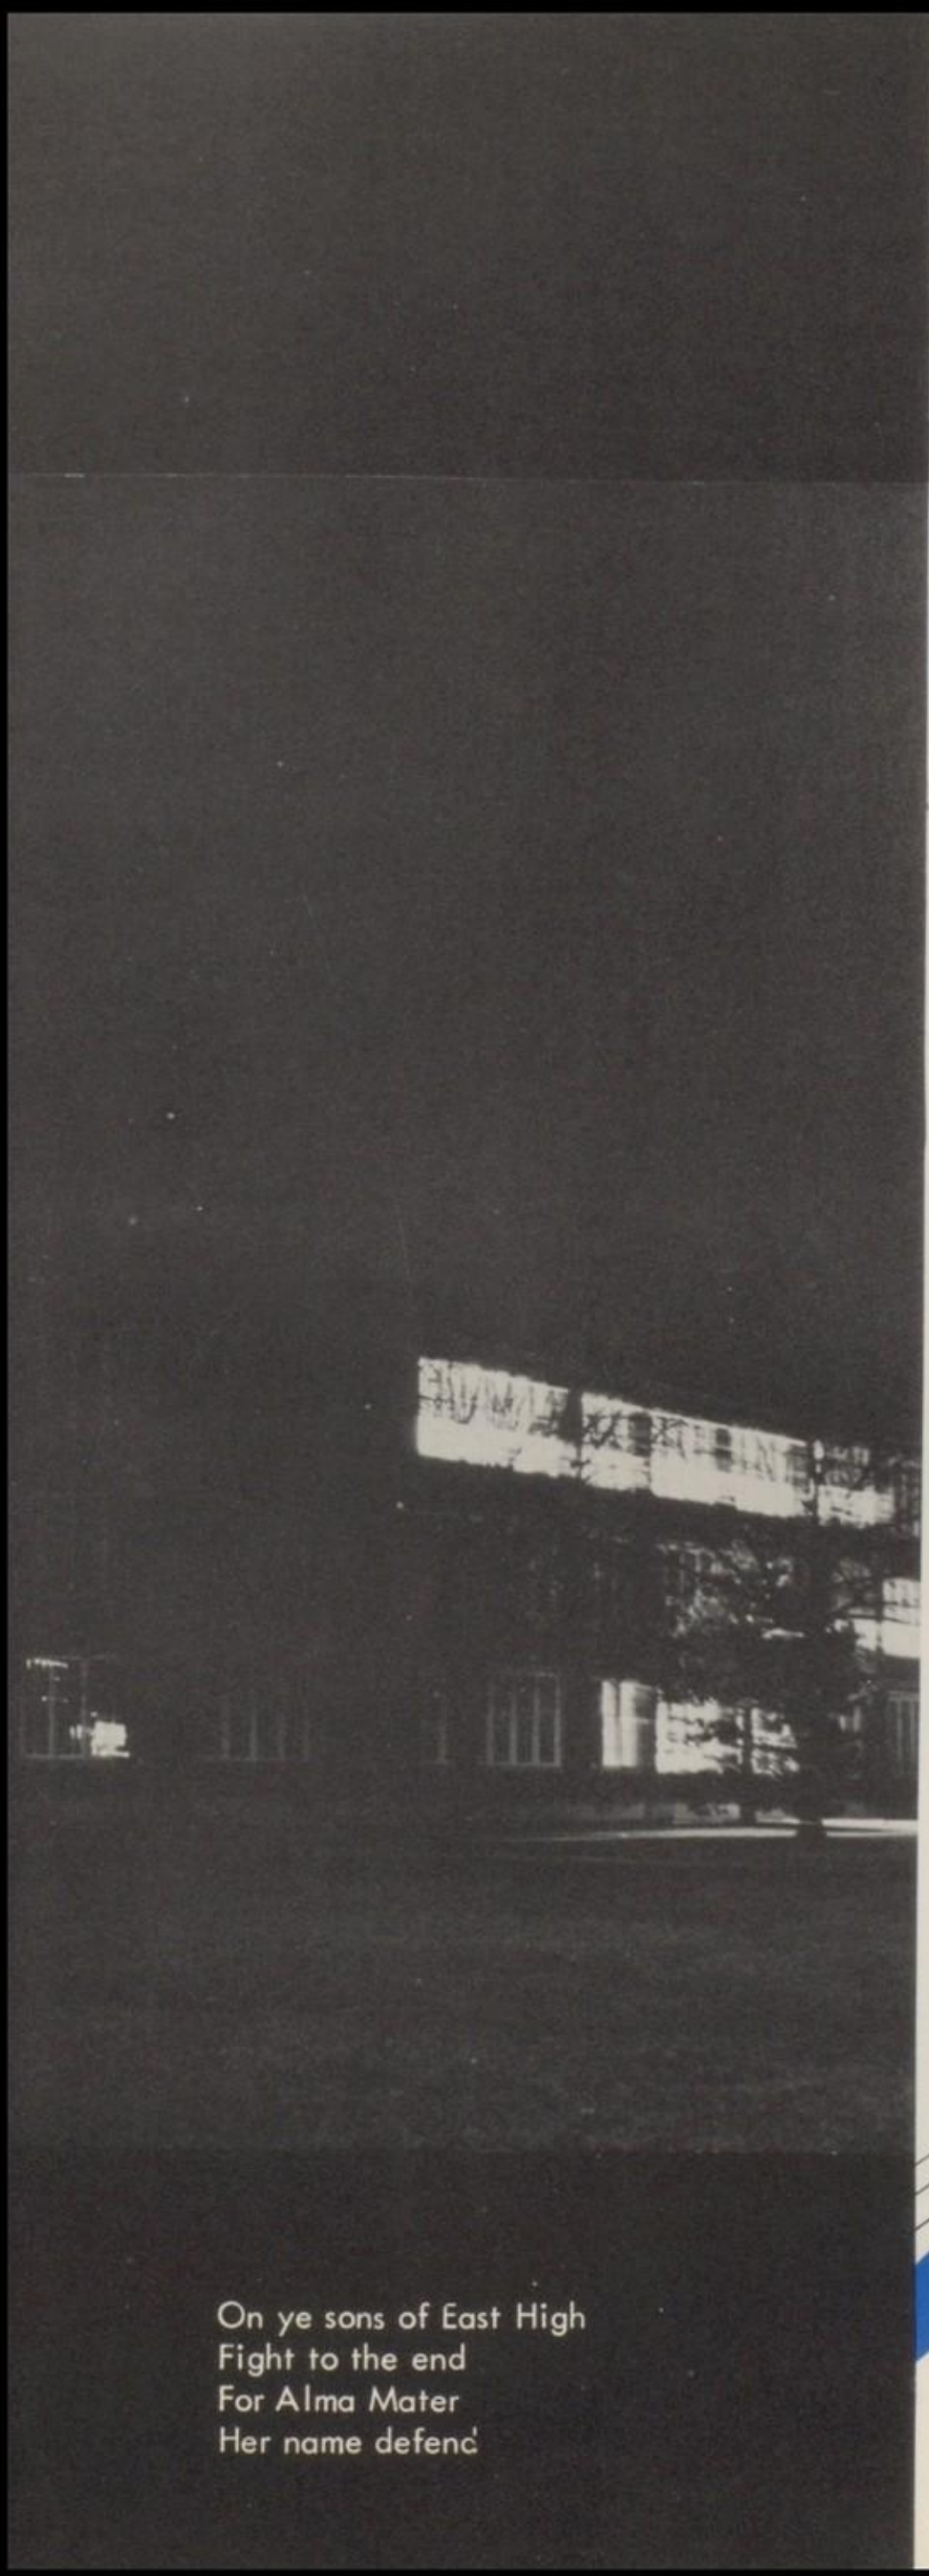
Wichita, Kansas

Foreword

A school is more than brick and mortar, more than classrooms and books and gradecards. A school is the smell of chalk dust and the restless squeak of seats a moment before bell time. It's a group of girls in the hall with their heads together over the latest grapevine news. It's the loneliness of walking by empty seats in a darkened auditorium and the sense of belonging that comes from hearing a friendly "Hi, Sue" or Hello, Jim." It's the agony of struggling with an impossible geometry assignment, and the pride of finally mastering it. It's the "very good" that a thoughtful teacher penciled across the top of the theme you worked on all one Sunday afternoon, and it's the sound of 1600 voices lifted in the flag salute before each assembly. It's a bunch of kids bellowing an off-key "Happy Birthday" to someone during lunch period, and it's the thrill of seeing somebody you know making like a second Sarah Bernhardt or John Barrymore in the senior play. A school is all these things, and many more. . .
For the real spirit of a school lies not in the beauty of its campus, or in the newness of its buildings, but in the thoughts and actions of its students and faculty. To this spirit --- the spirit which pervades East High School, this book is dedicated, in the hope that its echoes will never die away.

This was your year. . .
And this is your school. . .

The Blue and White forever,
Fight on, East High
Thy aces never
Let thy spirit die.



On ye sons of East High
Fight to the end
For Alma Mater
Her name defend

'56 Was Their Year, Too

Presenting Lord and Lady ECHO

"Always smiling" is a phrase that reveals much of the warm friendly personalities belonging to Richard Roberts, and Lynn Howard, Lord and Lady Echo of 1956.

Along with the honor of being selected by the 1,930 subscribers to "Echoes of '56," as two of the most outstanding members of the senior class, Lynn and Richard also enjoyed the hospitality and true atmosphere of Old Mexico and a free dinner at El Charro's restaurant.

Afterwards the lucky couple attended the Fox Miller theater as guests of the management to see "Ransom" starring Glen Ford and Donna Reed.

CHIVALRY IS NOT DEAD! proves gallant Lord Echo as he helps Lady Echo with her coat before leaving for an evening of royal revelry.

"EL TOREADOR" provides a romatic mood for fun, food, and music enjoyed by Lynn and Richard, pictured here with Helen McConnell, the organist at El Charro's.

AFTER THE SHOW Richard and Lynn stop to admire the billboard and comment on what a suspense filled movie "Ransom" was.

"I HAD A WONDERFUL TIME!" says Lady Lynn to Lord Richard at the end of their "evening on the town.

VICTORY'S REWARD, the coveted Ark Valley Football Trophy, shared this year by East and North, is presented to Principal Sid F. Moore by Craig Shuler, '56, during a pep assembly.

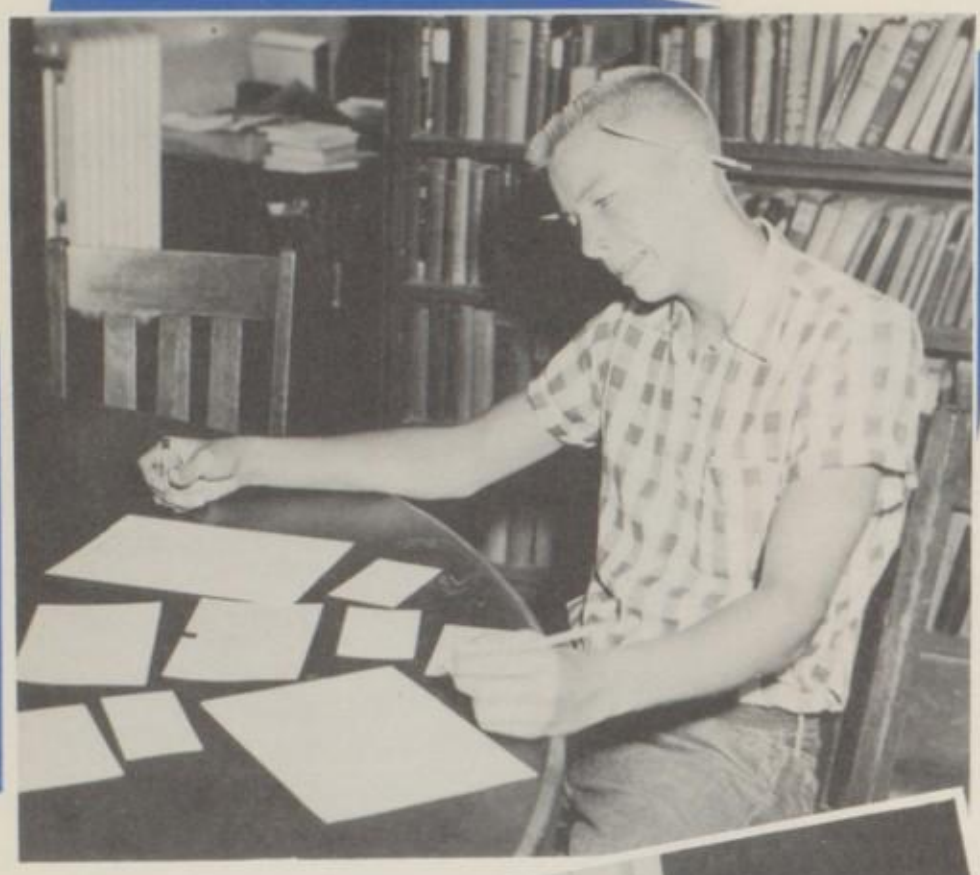
THREE KINGS. . . Nancy Forbes, '57, as Amahl's mother in the music department's presentation of "Amahl and the Night Visitors, "pleads with the three kings, Warren Lawrence, '56, David Priboth, '57, and Doyle Frank, '56.

OF '56

FOOTBALL SWEETHEART Gretchen Granner, '56, reigns over Hangar festivities attended by seniors Lee Lutz and Kay Rathbone and gridiron escorts Gary McGuire, Wayne Hamm, Dick Johnson, and Roger Perry.

ONCE IN A LIFE TIME! Frances Harrington, '56, measures Dorothy Anerson, '56, for her cap and gown, those long awaited garments which represent 12 years of "readin', writin', and 'rithmetic."

More Highlights



OH NO! NOT ANOTHER ONE! seems to be the thought of Steve Rutledge, '58, as he stares at some of the many forms students must fill out each fall on the first day of school.

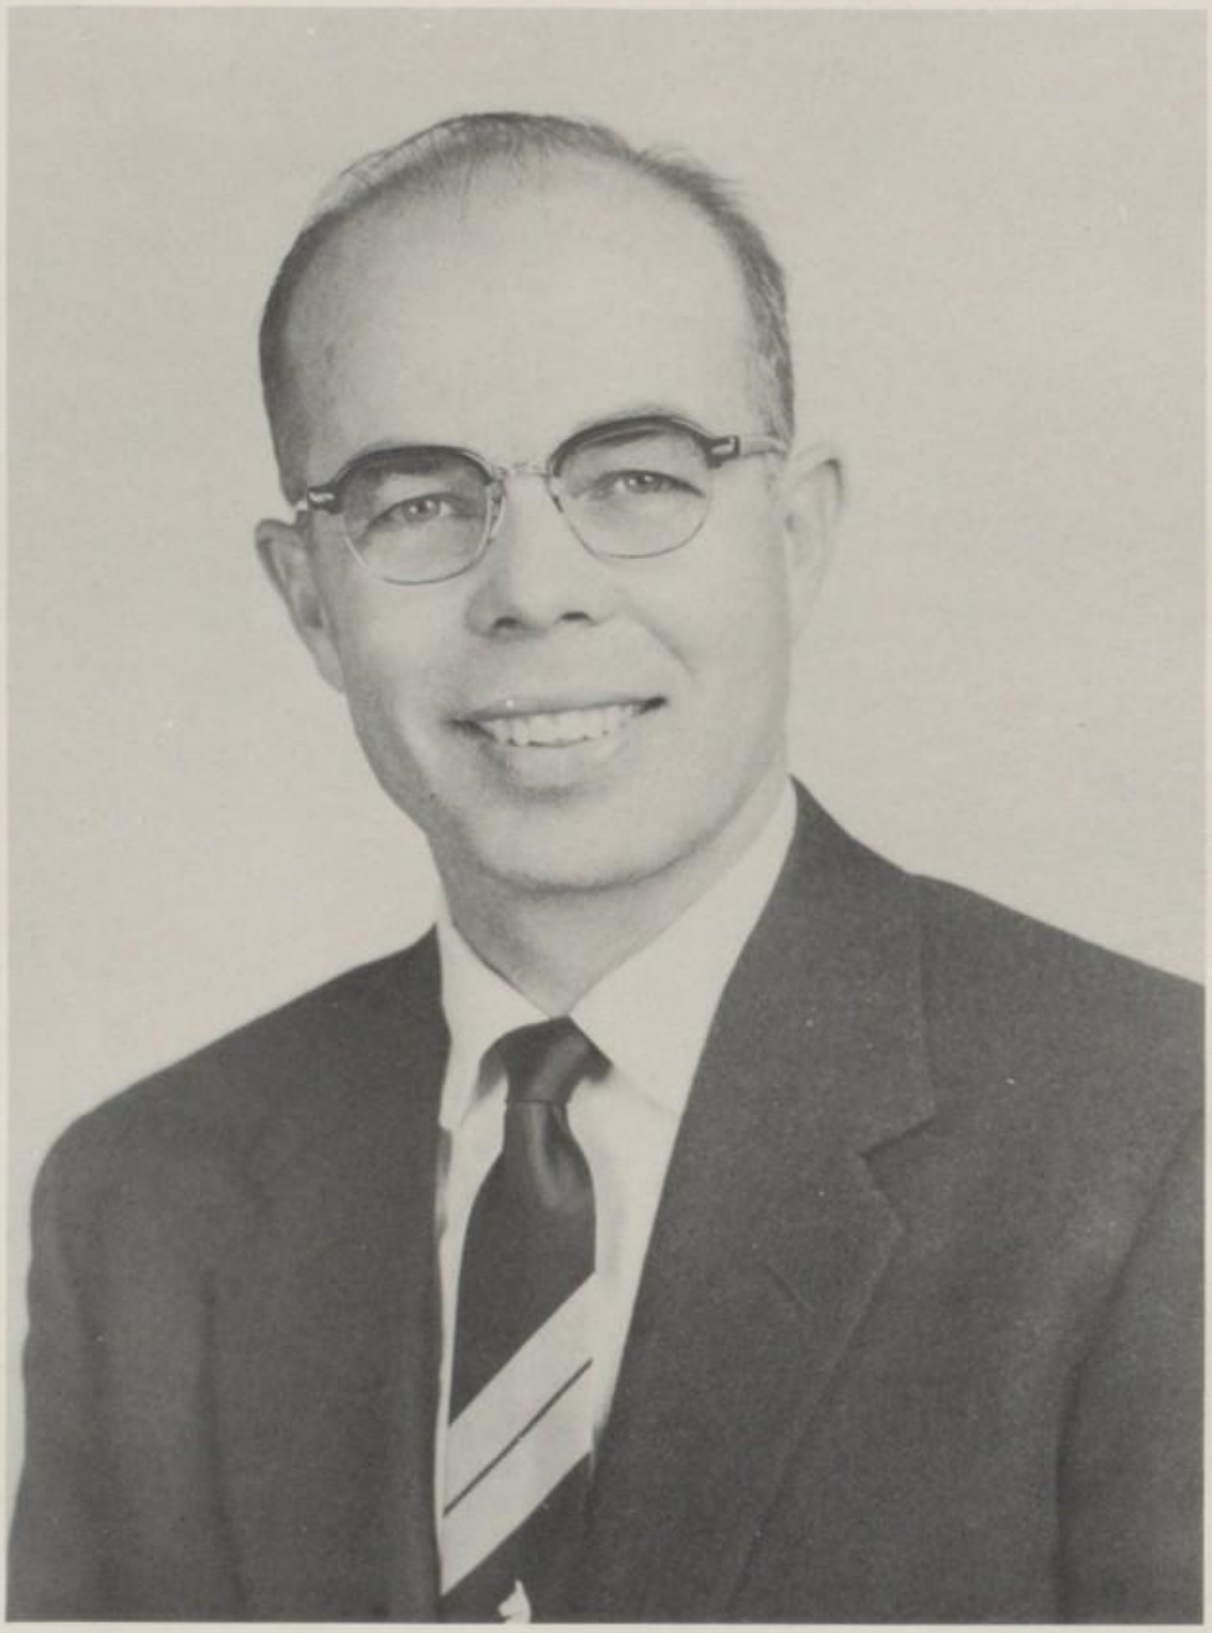
"SWING YOUR PARTNER!" Rehearsing the square dance number for the junior assembly are Shirley Sears, Bob Greenberg, Nelson Logan, Donna Nelson, Tom Tierney, Jack Rauh, and Anestine Williams.

"SEE YA LATER ALLIGATOR!" was the theme song of the "Head-ettes," one of the acts in this year's sophomore assembly.

LEARNING

The lighted lamp...
The opened book...
The hurried scratching of pen across paper...
The temptation to lay work aside...
"I'll do it later---"
The necessity of finishing it now...
"No late papers will be accepted---"
A teacher, challenging students
To think for themselves...
-----These things symbolize
The spirit of Learning.

Sid F. Moore



As East's principal, Mr. Sid F. Moore has the responsibility of keeping the school's administrative machinery running smoothly as well as enforcing the policies of the Wichita Board of Education. A teacher for 24 years, he is not only an educational leader, but also a good friend of both students and teachers.

Introducing...

A former East High graduate, Mr. Fred Addis, capably fulfills the duties involved in the vice-principal's job. Mr. Addis is the first assistant to the principal and takes charge of East when Mr. Moore is absent. He attends to student discipline problems and frequently holds conferences to discuss such problems with both parents and students.

Mr. Harry W. McKimmey, assistant principal at East last year, is now the supervisor of the Industrial Education Department. In this job he directs the activities of 21 vocational instructors and sees that each student is enrolled in the courses which will benefit him the most.

Miss Flora Stebbins, assistant principal, is the key figure in East High's enrollment system. Late enrollments, last minute schedule changes, and crowded classrooms are only a few of the problems she must deal with in her task of balancing the enrollment of approximately 3200 students in 580 classes.

... The Administration

These are the people who keep the vast organization which is Wichita High School East running smoothly and efficiently. Their jobs range from typing the daily bulletin and checking on all absentees every day, to running the switchboard and keeping the books.

It is the capable performance of such duties that make the office and the Guidance Center the center of all school activities.

Enrolling new students is only one of the many jobs handled by Registrar, Mrs. Janet C. Corey. A few of her other duties are establishing class rank, compiling the senior list, and making out the honor roll.

As Administrative Assistant, Mr. O. J. Budd assists the principal and vice-principal by keeping the car registrations for the parking lots, handling a part of the reports for the Board of Education Office, keeping a record of seventh hour conferences, and assisting Mr. Addis with discipline. Mr. Budd is also Chairman of the Occupational Guidance Clinic at East.

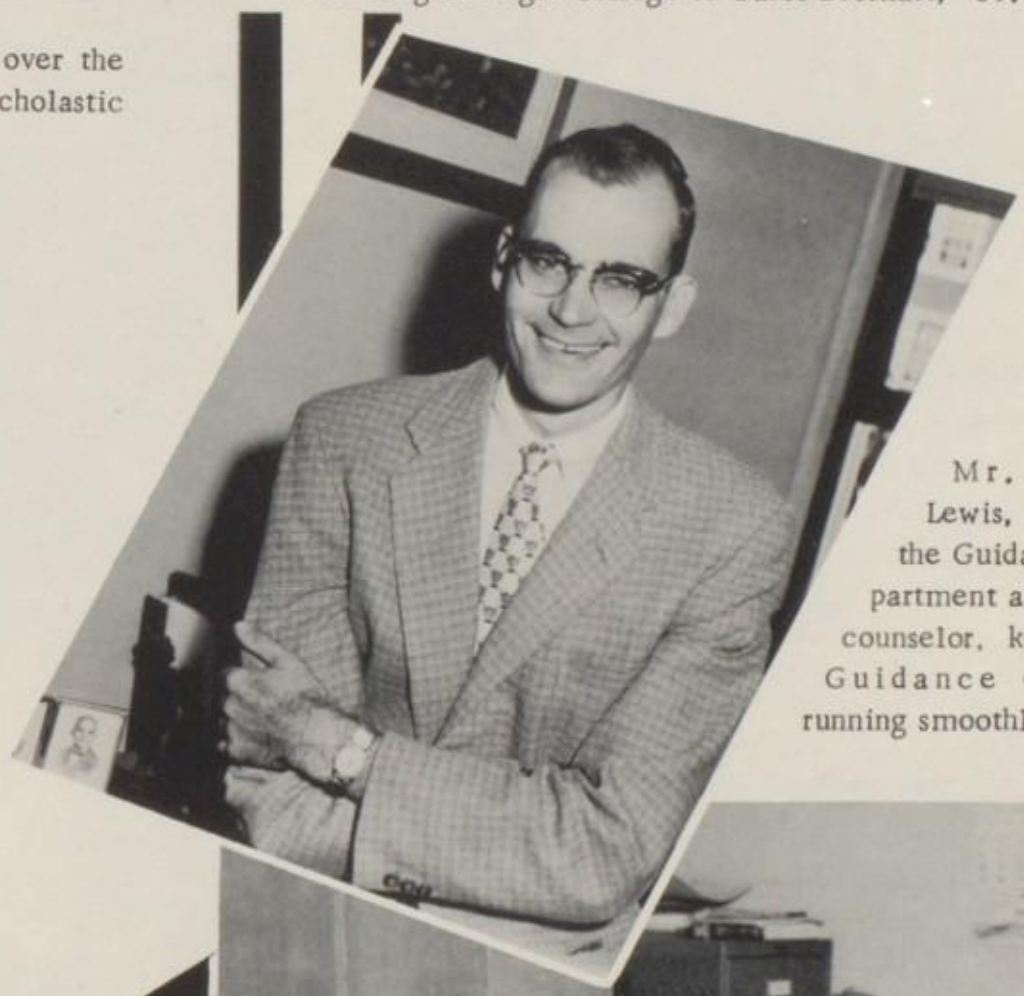
Keepers of the files and the official records are members of the office staff, Mrs. Lula Mae Abel, Mrs. Eva Kiefer, Mrs. Sue Hall, and Mrs. Anona Vague. Not pictured is Miss Judy Stinson who joined the staff at the beginning of second semester.

Always ready to lend a helping hand are Mrs. Ada Clifton, Mrs. Rita Stogsdill and Mrs. Imogene Vincent, members of the Guidance Center staff.

Mrs. Edith Worthington, sophomore counselor, looks over the materials she will use to administer one of the many scholastic aptitude tests given at East each year.

Mrs. Gladys Leland, senior counselor, explains the importance of choosing the right college to Carol Everhart, '56.

Checking into faulty excuses, giving advice to the college board, changing schedules, and assigning conferences are only a few of the many duties of East High's counseling staff. However, their main job is to help students in solving their personal and school problems.



Mr. Warren Lewis, Head of the Guidance Department and junior counselor, keeps the Guidance Center running smoothly.

Mr. Vernon Kirby, attendance counselor, smiles as he hears the same excuse for the fourth time in one hour.

Music-minded students at East find a wide variety of courses from which to choose, including music theory, glee club, band, and orchestra. The main objective of the department is to encourage participation in and appreciation for good music. To accomplish this three vocal teachers and one instrumental teacher, Mr. Kenneth Thompson, supervise 19 music classes each day.

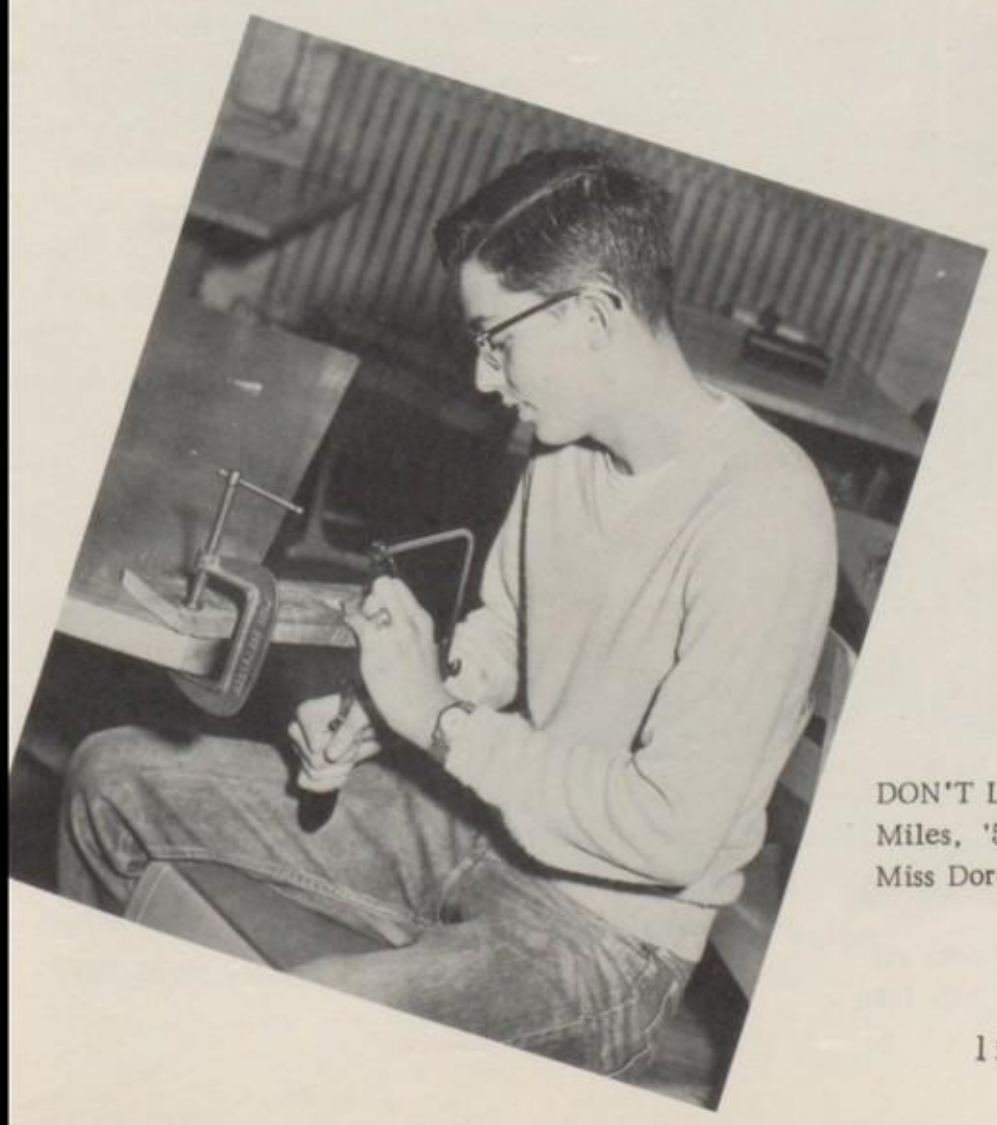
Rex Hall

Creative expression of ideas is the opportunity the art department offers 371 students enrolled in any of the six different art classes. Stage sets, posters, table and dance decorations, museum exhibitions, and cartoons for the Messenger and yearbook are only a few of the many projects carried on by this department.

FRIENDLY ADVICE---Seniors Jerry Phipps and Jo Annette Olivier offer Doug Wikander some "constructive criticism" in Mr. Rex Hall's ceramics class.

LOOK PRETTY, PLEASE...hard at work drawing portraits, one of the many projects undertaken in Mr. Watson Bidwell's free-hand drawing class, are Martha Stout, '58, and Julie Cope, '58.



DON'T LET THIS FOOL YOU! This isn't wood working class. It's Don Miles, '56, cutting the silver for a fancy new ring. Don is a student in Miss Dorothy Eberhardt's silversmithing class.

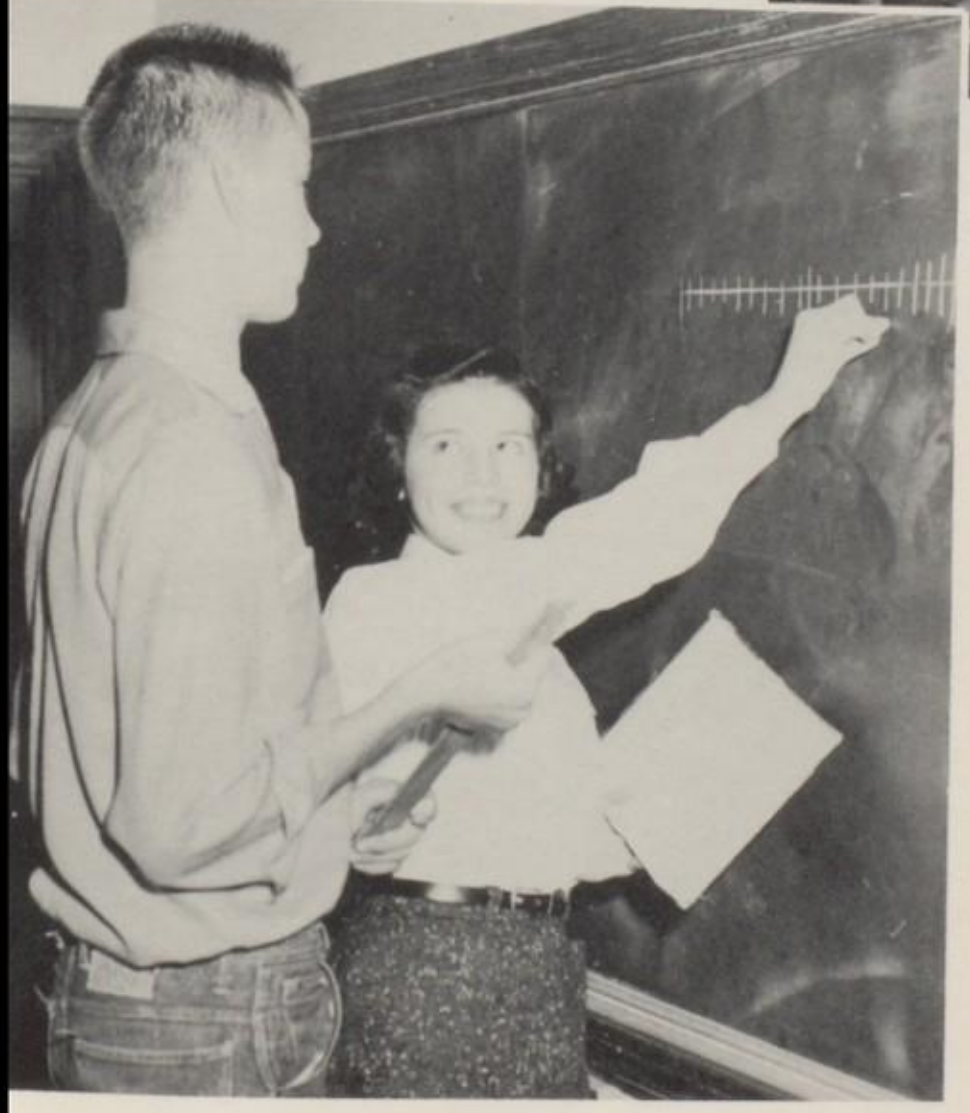
To interest the college bound student and also the "consumer citizen" the East mathematics department offers eight courses, including basic algebra and basic mathematics three semesters of regular algebra, plane and solid geometry, college algebra, and trignometry.

Because of the growing demand for engineers, this year's enrollment in the mathematics department has increased considerably over that of the past few years.

IF TWO CHAIRS COST FOUR DOLLARS... Beverly Van Buskirk, '57, and Phyllis McDougal, '58, are diligently concentrating on their home work in Mr. Wilbur Turner's basic math class.



"IT'S REALLY VERY SIMPLE," says Judy Crow, '58, as she explains an algebra problem to Charles Stithom, '58.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS come in for some intensive geometric measuring from David Mosbacker, '57, and Phyllis Phifer, '58, in Miss Esther Benedict's geometry class.

Located in the north-east corner of the second floor, the East High Library holds 15,574 books for circulation, plus between 700 and 800 new books which were added to the shelves this year.

Students working on research themes and other projects find that much of the information they need can be found in the reference books, encyclopedias, newspaper clippings, and magazines on file in the library's well equipped reference room.

A capable staff, supervised by Miss Frances Strickland, head librarian, is on duty all day to serve students and teachers.

Speech and Drama

Sherla Fisher
Speech

Robert Copeland
Dramatics

Speech and drama students gain self-confidence and speaking ability as well as a thorough knowledge of the fundamentals of speaking and acting.

Acting techniques, early theater, and foreign dialects are the subjects studied in drama courses.

Speech classes discuss problems occurring in everyday life, such as making proper introductions, interviews, parliamentary procedure, and radio work, as well as successful public speaking.

DEAD ON THE COUCH lies Marcia Rodd as blackhearted Bud Collier tries to murder Paula Bird during a rehearsal of "Out of the Frying Pan," the first senior play of the year.

"YOU'RE ON!" says Ed Kitch, '57, as he flips the switch of the tape recorder that will allow juniors Bob Daniels and Margot Winger to "hear themselves as others do," in one of Miss Sherla Fisher's speech classes.

MIRROR, MIRROR, ON THE WALL... Rondi Johnson, Sandra Powell, Nina Pepper, and Donna Weigand "face facts" as they practice the fine art of applying stage make-up in junior dramatics.

The objectives of the department are to better prepare students to enter the business world and to aid them with their college work.

1,660 students are enrolled in business courses, with typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping proving to be the most popular subjects.

SENOR, SENORITA...Claudine Talbott, '56, and Mac Knighton, '57, model the unique costumes of our Spanish speaking neighbors in one of Miss Eunice Stormont's Spanish classes.

Students of French, Spanish, and German not only study the grammar and vocabulary of these languages, but also the customs of the peoples living in the various countries.

Latin students acquire a basic background for classic literature and a better understanding of English.

In order to bring about these objectives, East offers instruction through six semesters of Latin and four semesters each of the modern languages.

"LET'S SEE, WHAT WAS THAT WORD?" Jim Hiebert, '58, appears a bit uncertain of the day's lesson, as does Sue Walters, '58, peering over his shoulder. Joyce Mosher, '58, seems to be the only one who "burned the midnight oil" studying German.

"NICE NEEDLEWORK," says Susie Warren, '58, as she points out to Mardonna Duncan and Bob Huff, also '58, one of the "props" used in teaching Latin at East.

Student Government

"BIG WHEELS" at East are student body officers Bob Smith, president, Kay Morgan, vice-president, and Janice Bannon, treasurer.

East High's student government, composed of two legislative houses, the Student Council and the Representative Assembly, and three executive officers, is closely patterned after the national government. President Bob Smith has a cabinet consisting of the vice-president and secretary of each house and various appointed committee chairmen, and formal legislative procedure and courtesy is practiced in each of the houses.

During the year many worthwhile projects are sponsored by the student government, including the Sunshine Committee, Campus Clean-up, and the sale of "booster" buttons and East High stationery.

Through the Suggestion Box, every student at East is given an opportunity to participate actively in school government.

BIBLE CLUB

LIFT EVERY VOICE... Doug Jackson, '56, accompanied by Judy Haines, '57, leads the singing during morning devotions of the Bible Club.

Building better Christians is the purpose of East High's Bible Club. One of the newest and fastest growing clubs at East, the Bible Club meets every other Friday, bringing inspiration and fellowship to its enthusiastic members.

The meetings include outside speakers, professional musical groups, and club singspirations.

Every Tuesday and Thursday morning from 8:00 to 8:30 the club sponsors a quiet devotional period, open to all students.

Club membership is also open to any student at East. The head sponsor is Miss Marian Schuh.

...Or Politics

BOYS' STATE AND GIRLS' STATE

Boys' State, sponsored annually by civic, clubs, gives high school boys the opportunity to experience government in action. Selected on the basis of scholarship, social adjustment, and interest, the boys set up a model governmental system, electing their own officials, and enacting and enforcing legislation. The political activity of the week is climaxed by a formal dance, the Governor's Ball.

Similar in nature and purpose to Boys' State, Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxilary. Each year East sends one girl to participate in the model governmental activities of Girls' State.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATERS--those who attended Boys' and Girls' State last summer are, ROW 1: DeLores DeGrafenread, Mike Beatty, and Ken Kreutziger. ROW 2: Craig Shular, Don Price, Bill Addis, and Richard Roberts. ROW 3: Chuck Livingston, Carlton Allen, and Forrest Newlin.

HANGAR BOARD

Hangar Board members meet once a week for the purpose of planning and providing clean, acceptable weekend fun for East students.

Board members are chosen by the preceding year's members, and may serve only one year. Five members are chosen from each class.

The Board plans programs, dances, and charity benefits. They also provide food and service for the snack bar and coke vending machines, and equipment for playing ping pong and badminton.

MUSIC MAKERS

A two-year dream of both the faculty and the students in the music department was realized when "Amahl and the Night Visitors" was given for the Christmas assembly Dec. 21.

This one-act opera is the story of Amahl, a crippled boy, who is visited by the three Magi on Christmas Eve.

Many community groups, as well as East students and faculty, were priviledged to see the program.

Another project of the department was "Young and Foolish," a three-act musical revue of popular song hits, which was presented March 1 and 2.

"I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Cocanuts," "Hot Canary," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and, of course, "Young and Foolish" were some of the numbers in the program.

Handel's "Messiah," East's traditional Easter assembly, was performed by a choir of 500 voices made up of all the school's music groups.

SPEECH AND DRAMA CLUB gives students a chance to "act up". SPEECH AND DRAMA CLUB

Greasepaint and scripts are familiar terms to students belonging to Speech and Drama Club. Members work in different phases of the dramatic arts---from acting to lighting to debate. Sponsors are Miss Sherla Fisher and Mr. Bob Copeland.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Thespian pins represent month of hard work to the students who wear them. To receive the title of National Thespian, a person must earn points both in acting and production. Thespian sponsor is Mr. Bob Copeland.

MUSIC CLUB

Although only a year old, Music Club already boasts over 100 members. To have professional musicians perform for its members, to give members an opportunity for individual performance, and to increase appreciation of good music are the three main objectives of the club. Miss Gratia Boyle is the head sponsor.

Senior Dramatics

INTO THE FIRE---Brad Hammond is in "hot water" with cops, Larry Pierce and John Lonneke, during the seniors' presentation of "Out of the Frying Pan."

"TEMPER, TEMPER!" Chides Petruchio, Alan Phares, as Kate Amelia San Romani, Attacks him with a stool in "The Taming of the Shrew."

[CARNIVAL] LIFE is the background for "Liliom," which starred Mary Gleckler, Harlow Woods, Marcia Rodd, and Brad Hammond.

During 1955 and 1956 the senior dramatics classes presented two three-act plays and the "March of Drama," a production showing the development of drama from ancient to modern times.

"Out of the Frying Pan," a comedy by Francis Swann, is concerned with the dilemma of six young would-be actors and actresses driven by lack of funds to share the apartment of their dumb but rich friend, Dottie Coburn. The play revolves around the efforts of the intrepid six to impress Mr. Kenny, a famous producer living in the same building, with their dramatic talents. The result is a series of hilarious events, including a faked murder, a secret marriage, and the sudden, unexpected appearance of Dottie's father.

Excerpts from three great periods in dramatic history---Greek, Shakespearian, and Modern---were presented in the "March of Drama" production Dec. 1 and 3.

Representing the most ancient form of drama, the program opened with a sacrificial Voo-Doo dance, followed by a dramatic selection from the Greek tragedy, "Medea."

More up-to-date in theme was a sketch from "The Taming of the Shrew, representing the Shakespearian period.

"This Property Is Condemned," a modern drama by Tennessee Williams, completed the production.

For their final play of the year, the seniors chose "Liliom, the drama on which the broadway musical, "Carousel" was based.

Liliom, a shiftless young ne'er-do-well of Budapest loses his job as carousel barker defending Julie Zeller. Liliom and Julie later fall in love and marry, but in an attempt to get money to take care of his wife, Liliom takes part in an unsuccessful robbery. Rather than go to jail and disgrace Julie and their child which is soon to be born, Liliom kills himself. In the High Courts of Heaven, Liliom is commissioned to return to earth after 15 years to do one good deed.

Junior Dramatics

"WE WON!" cries Howard Carol, as he swings Agnes Carol around the room after Ginger's victory. The proud papa and mama are played by John Moss and Ernestine Williams.

"I'LL MAUL'EM!" announces Ginger, played by Nancy Castor, while Ruth Hanson as Lizzie, the maid, stands by to offer encouragement.

LAST MINUTE CHECK---seniors Jim Pechin and Don McNew, Lighting technicians, make a last-minute check of the lights before the performance of "Time Out For Ginger."

BIG MAN ON THE CAMPUS, Eddie Davis, played by Larry Witherspoon.

Time out for Ginger

"Time Out For Ginger," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the junior dramatics classes on Feb. 23 and 24.

East will remember "Time Out For Ginger" as the entertaining story of Howard Carol, father of three 'teen-aged girls, who, after making a speech on "equality of rights," finds himself faced with the difficult problem of a 14-year-old daughter who wants to play football on the high school varsity squad.

Members of the cast:

John Moss	Howard Carol
Ernestine Williams	Agnes Carol
Nancy Castor	Ginger Carol
Fay Fields	Joan Carol
Sharon Armstrong	Jeanne Carol
J.C. Emerson	Tommy Green
Larry Witherspoon	Eddie Davis
Ruth Hanson	Lizzie

The Messenger

THE MESSENGER, now completing its sixty-second year of publication, has proved itself a noteworthy paper by receiving the Kansas University "Service to the School" award, the N.S.P.A. All American rating, and the C.S.P.A. Medalist Award. The Medalist and the All American award are given only to papers which rank, in quality, in the upper ten per cent of all high school papers in the country.

Among other projects undertaken by THE MESSENGER in 1956 were three assembly programs, and the traffic safety project.

SIMON LEGREE IN TRIPLICATE! Seniors Ethel Ticer, Sandy Focht, and Dave Higdon, the three Messenger editors, finish up a hard day's work.

DROP THE JIVE---STAY ALIVE was the slogan of the 1956 traffic assembly, sponsored by the Messenger. Contestants Carol Heinicke, '58, John Lonneke, '56, and Peggy Taylor, '57, jot down their answers while Gail Lowry, '56, stands by to collect the papers.

BUSY PUTTING OUT THE PAPER as well as writing copy for the yearbook, is The Messenger staff, left to right, Trudy Weyer, Gail Lowry, Janice Murray, Sharon Spencer, Ethel Ticer, Laurie Gow, Jeanne Englebert, Marla Tilford, Karen Thornquist, Sandy Focht, Ruthie Wiles, Brad Hammond, Janet Williams, Larry Fidler, Eddie Fisher, Louise Leland, and Tommy Vanderhoofven. Not pictured are Betty Webb and Dave Higdon.

CROONERS Larry Fidler, Tommy Vanderhoofven, Eddie Fisher, and Brad Hammond attempt to convince the student body in assembley that no Ace can afford to be without a Messenger subscription. This assembly launched The Messenger sales campaign.

ECHOES of '56

PICTURES, PASTE, AND "ELBOW GREASE" are familiar words to Betty Webb, '56, yearbook editor.

CARTOONIST Larry Floyd, '56, displays his talents in the yearbook assembly. Larry also designed the cover for Echoes of '56.

"WANT A BUY A YEARBOOK?" asks salesman Larry Fidler, '56, as he corners Jim Thompson, '57, on the stairs. During the campaign 1,930 books were sold, topping the original goal, 1800, by 130.

ELEVATOR ALLIGATOR---and friend. Photographers, Allan Johnston, '56, and Brent Mayo, '56, perch on the freight elevator, their "second darkroom."

Junior-Senior Prom Royalty

KING BRUCE

QUEEN ANNETTE

Table decorations of artificial orchids in white plastic-foam holders and the music of Cliff Sproul's 13-piece orchestra transformed the Trig Ballroom into a perfect setting for an "Enchanted Evening"---the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom, held Dec. 21.

Reigning over the festivities were King Bruce McGrew and Queen Annette Willis. Preceding the couple to the royal throne were their eight junior attendants, Mary Olson, Tom Tierney Marjane Gaston, John Moss, Deanna Nelson, Bill Noble, Donna Nelson, and Nelson Logan.

Forrest Newlin, Senior Class President, crowned Queen Annette and gave her the customary kiss. The king's crown was presented to Bruce by Judy Tucker, Girls' Vice President of the senior class.

BIG MOMENT---Judy Tucker, '56, and Forrest Newlin, '56, look on as seniors Bruce McGrew and Annette Willis take their places of honor a moment after being crowned king and queen of the Junior-Senior Prom.

Attendant Kay Rathbone

Petite and friendly senior, Gretchen Granner, reigned as 1956 Football Sweetheart over the East-Winfield football game at Old Shocker Stadium, Nov. 10.

Gretchen, carrying a dozen red roses was escorted to her throne of honor during the half-time ceremonies by football player Dick Johnson, '56. Her attendants, Lee Lutz, '56, and Kay Rathbone, '56, were escorted by gridiron aces, Gary McGuire and Roger Perry, both '56.

Senior Wayne Hamm, big 220-pound right tackle, crowned Gretchen and gave her the traditional kiss.

An eight foot paper heart with "Sweetheart Gretchen" sprinkled across it in gold dust was the backdrop for Gretchen's honorary throne at the Hangar Dance, Nov. 11, climaxing a royal weekend.

Go East High, into the end zone younder;
Raise the score high as the sky.
There they go, filling the field with thunder,
Give a cheer for East High.

Aces all---how our boys deliver,
Flying right on the beam---
We'll win the game, and go down in fame,
Hey!
Nothing can stop an East High team.

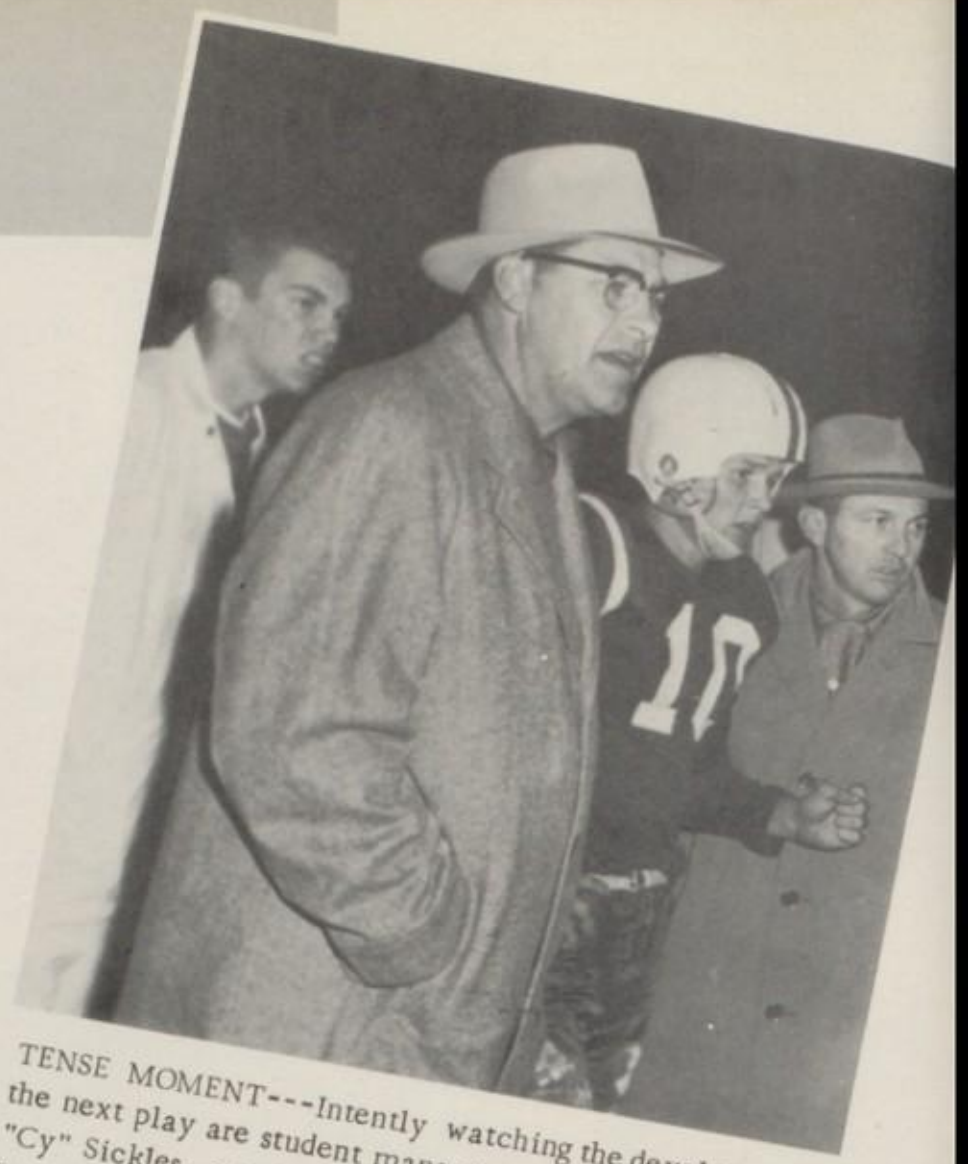
Touch-down Time!

East High's Blue Aces ended their 1955 season with an Ark Valley League record of seven wins and one loss, good for a first place tie with North.

During their march to the co-title, the Aces defeated Wellington, 20 to 7; El Dorado, 45 to 0; Newton, 13 to 7; West, 19 to 7; North, 13 to 0; Winfield, 40 to 0; and Ark City, 13 to 7. The Eastmen's only League loss was to Hutchinson, 13 to 12. They lost a non-league game to Topeka, 20 to 7.

Besides winning a share of the Ark Valley crown, the Aces also won the City Title by defeating both North and West.

Carring off individual honors were Aces Wayne Hamm, Wayne Coulter, Dick Johnson, and Art Hotchkiss, who were placed on the All-Ark Valley team. Wayne Hamm, tackle for East, also won a place for himself on the high-school All-American Honorable Mention team, as well as All-State honors. Coulter and Hotchkiss also received All-State honors.



TENSE MOMENT---Intently watching the development of the next play are student manager, Byron Duffield, Coach "Cy" Sickles, quarterback, Dick Johnson; and Head Coach, Bernie Taylor.

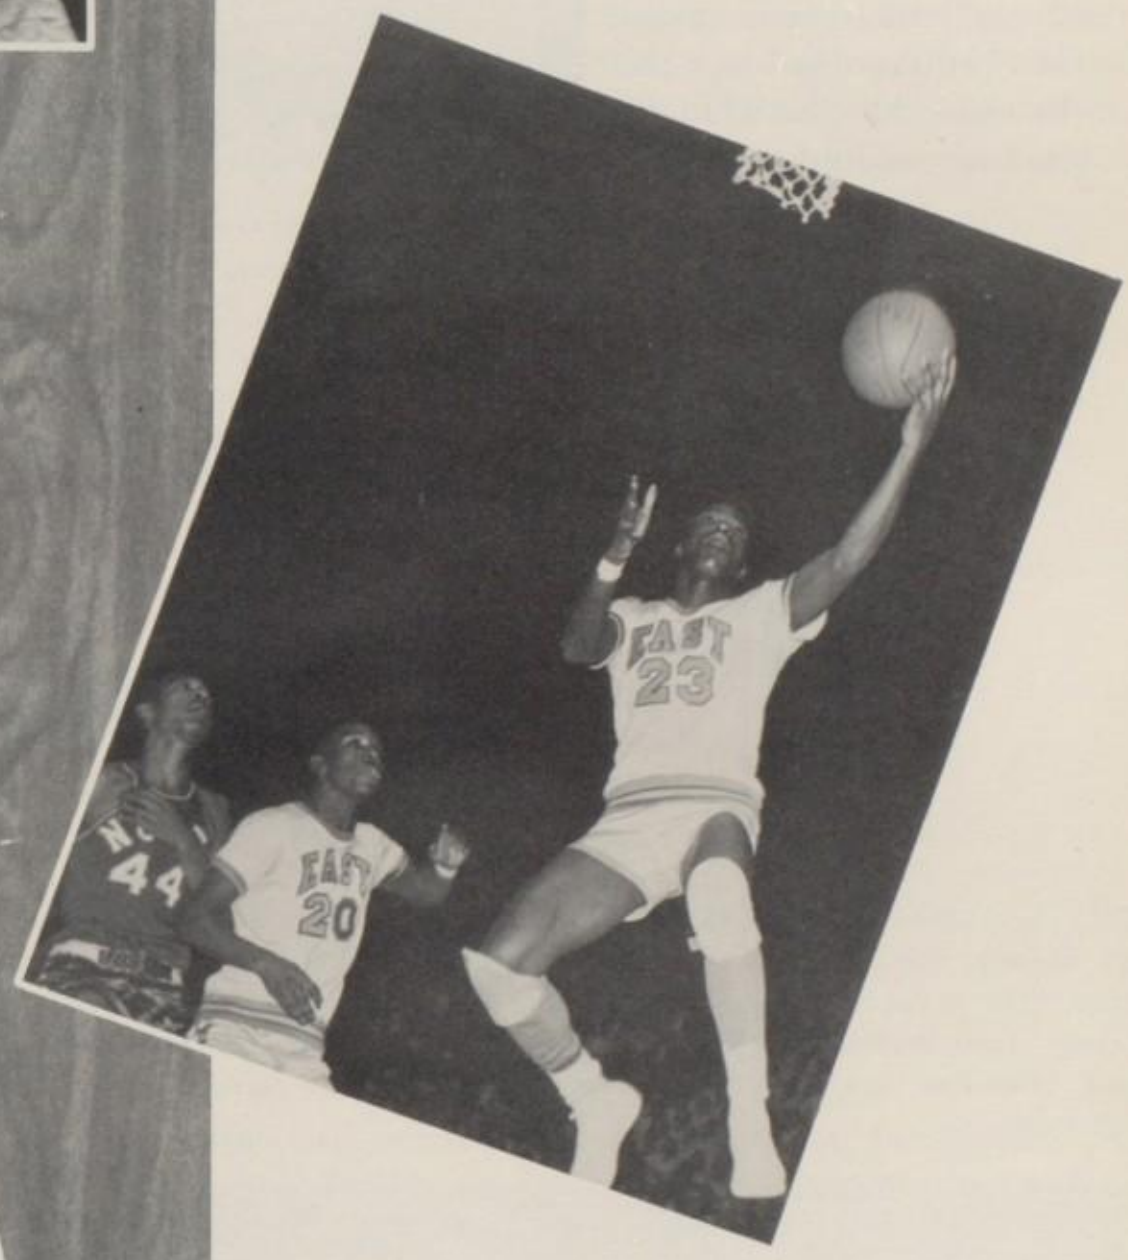
THE SCOREBOARD

With the help of six returning basketball lettermen, Coach Frank Henkle piloted East's Blue Aces into a fifth place tie with West in the Ark Valley League, with a record of eight wins and eight losses. Last year's cagers wound up the season in a tie with Hutchinson for sixth place and a 4-12 record.

The Newton Railroaders took top honors in the league this year with a 14-2 record.

Although the Aces lost 8 of their 16 games, they outscored their opponents by a total of 1039 points to 939.

DOUBLE TROUBLE!---Bruce McGrew, No. 35, of East goes up for a shot while Don Berlin of North tries to block it.



LOOK AT THAT!---Artie Lee of North, No. 44, and Herschel Carter, No. 20, of East, watch as Ace Curtis Garrett, No. 23, goes up for two points against the North High Redskins.

STOP!---The camera freezes Ace Craig Shuler, No. 44, in midair while a Wellington Crusader tries to check Craig's shot. Bruce McGrew, No. 35, is looking on at the right.

WRESTLING

Built around five returning lettermen, Coach Jim Barger's wrestling squad ended the season with a total of 14 lettermen.

During the season the Ace matmen won four of their meets, lost five and tied one, putting East sixth in the state competition.

Art Hotchkiss took top honors at the state meet in the 165-lbs. division, while Don Matthews took second place in the 138 lbs. group, and Lowell Ashworth placed fourth in the heavyweight division.

ACE MATMEN---members of the wrestling squad are, ROW 1: Williams, Sudduth, Vessels, Hughes, Siepirt, Bigler, J. W. Dooley, Duty, and J. Driscoll. ROW 2: B. Thomas, Barger, Treadwell, Chambers, Carter, Logan, Jones, J. R. Dooley, Matthew, and Wright. ROW 3: Hunt, Pegg, Sealey, Addison, L. Thomas, Coulter, Hotchkiss, Morawitz, Ashworth, and (manager) J. Hall. ROW 4: Hephner, Ramsey, R. Driscoll, Anderson, Hiebert, Edmonds, Charleton, Taylor, Ingrim, Krieling, and Dunnaway, ROW 5: C. Clark (manager), Butts, Thompson, Pegg, Pratt, Forrester, Knox, Hull, Ransdell, McKay, and Howe.

SWIMMING

Although Coach "Fritz" Snodgrass' swimming team started the year with but four returning lettermen, his boys managed to win four against six losses and one tie.

One of the highlights of the season was Bob Atherton's state championship win in the 200-yard free style.

"We had a good team this year but a lot of tough competition," said Coach Snodgrass.

The West High Pioneers took the state title with East finishing fifth.

GOLF

Five returning lettermen, including senior Duke Evans and junior Max Cole, last year's state championship two-man team, sparked the 1956 golf team in their season's campaign, beginning with the Ark City Invitational on March 29, and closing with the all-important state tourney at Rolling Hills on May 18-19. In between these two dates Coach Don Wright's Aces participated in the Ark Valley Tournament at El Dorado, the North-East-West Invitational at Rolling Hills, and the El Dorado Invitational, as well as keeping dates with several individual Ark Valley teams.

... To Long Drives

TENNIS

Beginning their 1956 season on March 29, at Ark City, East's racket-weilders went on to play three home matches and seven out-of-town games, in addition to participating in both the regional and state tournaments held during the first part of May.

This year Coach "Cy" Sickles' squad boasted three returning lettermen and several promising junior players at the season's start.

Track

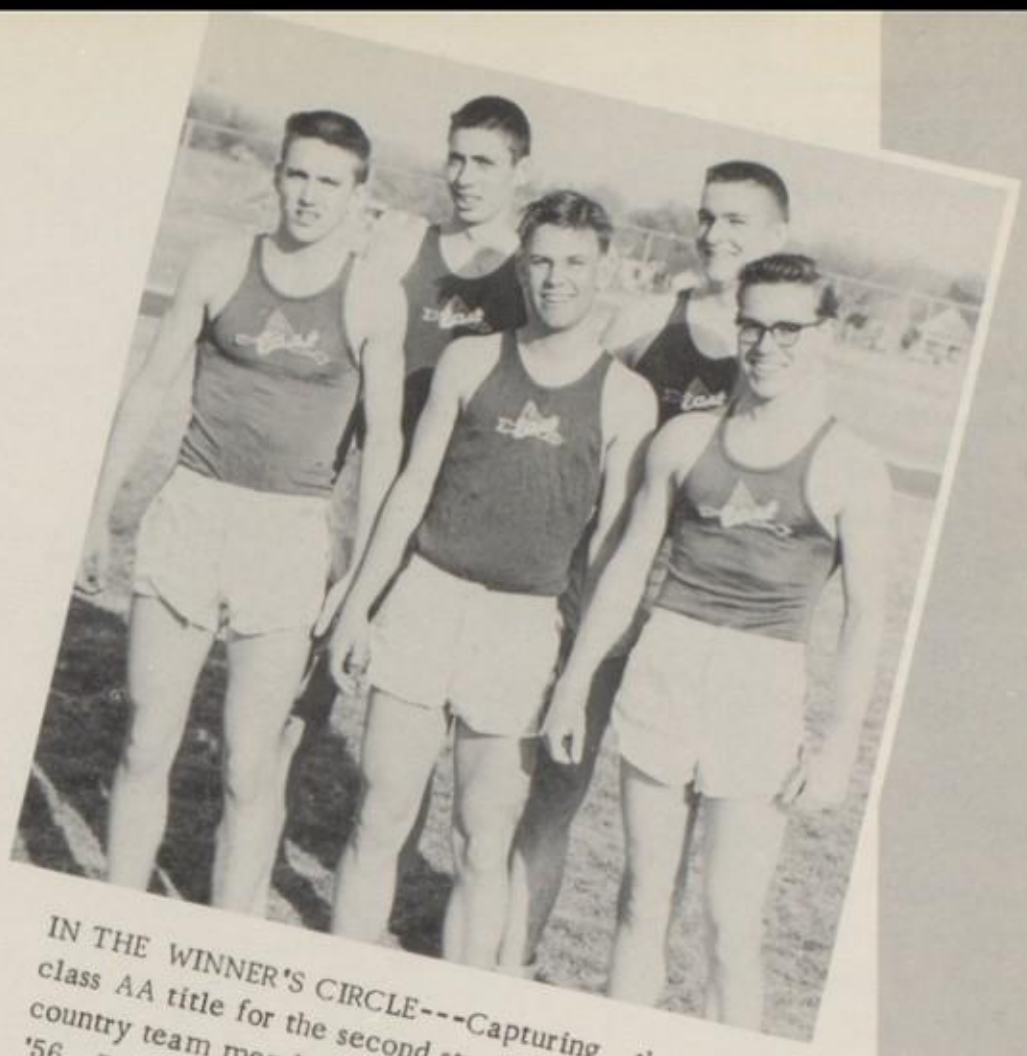
THEY'RE OFF! Russel Taylor, '58, Val Williams, 57, and Joe Clark '58, begin the 220-yard dash.

UP AND OVER! ---Charlie Miller, '56, clears the bar in high jump practice.

FOR the RECORD

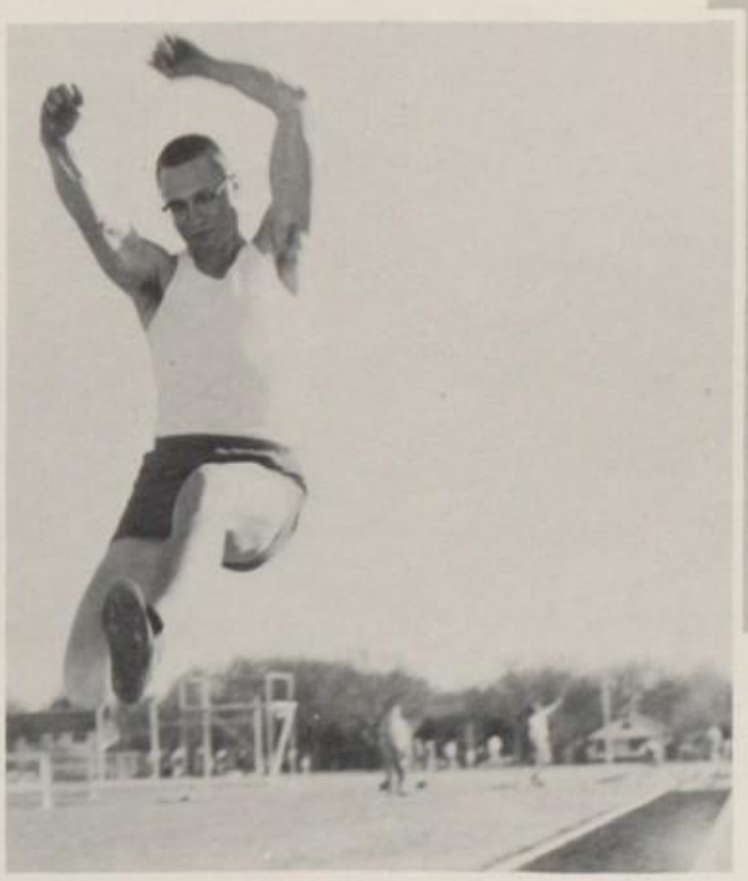
Since 1942 East High track teams have won eight state titles and have finished second three times. Under the direction of Coach "Fritz" Snodgrass, this year's team, built around 12 returning lettermen from 1955, participated in several dual and triangular meets with Wichita schools and other Ark Valley rivals. After participating in the All Ark Valley Meet at Wichita University, the Aces ended the season by being host for the state meet.

The cross-country team, sparked by Larry Floyed, '56, returning letterman from last year's state championship squad, once again walked off with the state title in the Nov. 5, State Meet held at Kansas University. On their way to the championship, the Aces won the Emporia, East, and Topeka Invitational meets and came in second in the West High Invitational.



IN THE WINNER'S CIRCLE---Capturing the state class AA title for the second straight year are cross-country team members Don Hill, '57, Larry Floyd, '56, Roger Smith, '57, Jay McMurray, '56, and Stanley Ramsey, '56.

FLYIN' HIGH!---Dale Hurry, '58, goes up and over the bar in a pole vaulting practice session.



TARZAN---David Breckbill, '56, takes the broad jump "in his stride."

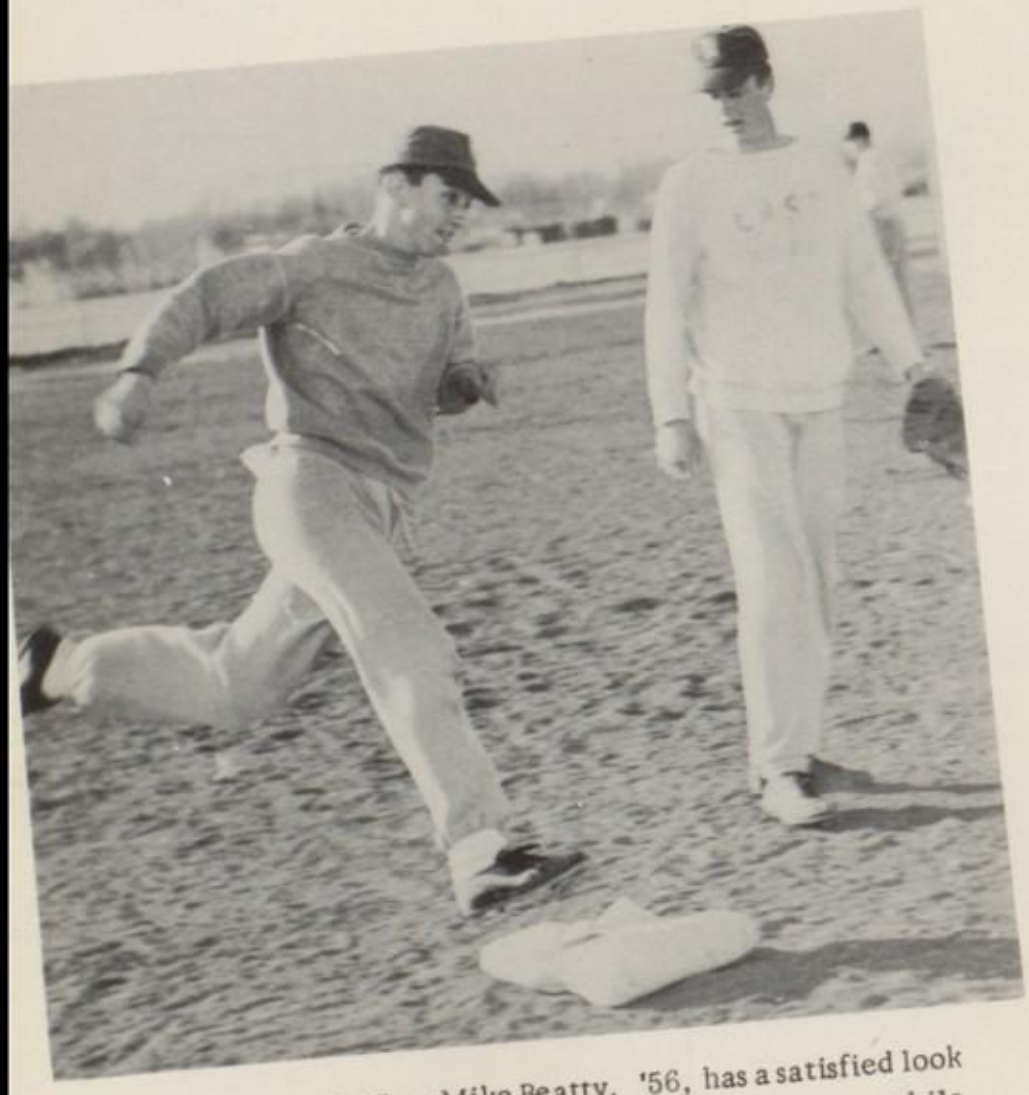
BASEBALL

East's 1956 Blue Ace diamondmen faced their opening game this year with a top squad, kindled by six returning lettermen from last year's Ark Valley League championship team. The 1955 team finished their season with an eight won and two lost record.

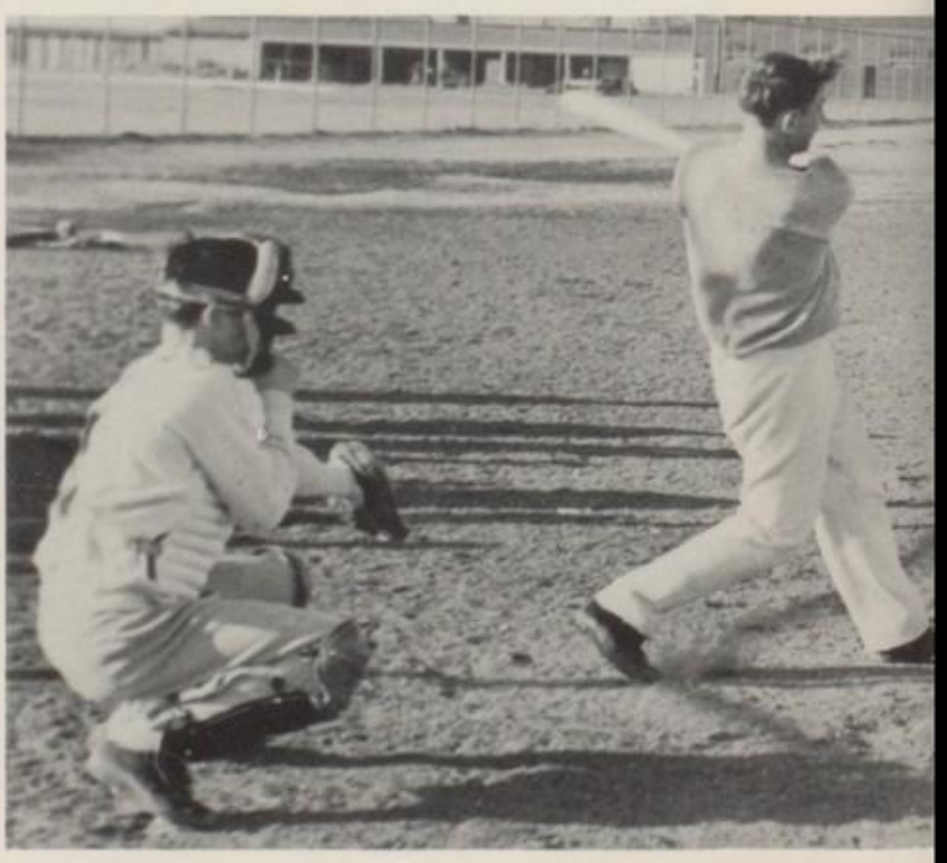
"We are stronger in pitching and hitting than last year's team, and if the boy's work hard, we have a good chance to take the state title," remarked Coach Bernie Taylor, at the beginning of the season.

EAST'S DIAMONDMEN---members of the 1956 baseball squad are alphebetically, Addis, Addison, Beatty, Bigley, Breer, Bradley Brooker, Bruce Brooker, Carter (manager), Chappell, Clonts, Cox (manager), Jim Dooley, John Dooley, Downey, Dunlevy, Forrester, Franks, Graber, Haran, Haynes, Henderliter, Henderson, Hollinger, Hunt, Ingrim, Jantz, Jones, Kentling, Knox, Kreutziger, Kreiling, Kronet, Kyle, Langford, Lee, Lewis, Liberty, Logan, London, Lum, Lungwitz, McPeak, B. Williams, L. Wilson, K. Wilson, R. Wilson, Witherspoon, Wolf, Woodman, Woodward, Wyant, D. Young, J. Young.

Batter - Up!



"I GOT IT MADE!"---Mike Beatty, '56, has a satisfied look on his face as he rounds the turn for second base, while Jim Dunlevy, '57, keeps his eye on the first base bag.



THERE SHE GOES!---Dwight Morrison, '56, smashes a long drive into centerfield as Frank Chappell, '58, looks on from his catching position.

SENIORS

"Though summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years.
When other nights and other days
May find us gone our separate ways
We will have these moments to remember. . ."

WE DOOD IT! say seniors Churck North, Ramona Fletcher, Gwynneth Ottaway, Mary Ottaway, and Dennis Malone as they end their last day of school, leaving the sophomores and juniors to suffer another week.

"Memories Are Made Of This. . ."

. . .For the sophomores it was
A year filled with new experiences
---The first day with its
Hustle and noisy confusion,
Enumerable cards to fill out,
And class rooms which somehow never seemed to be where you expected
---The strange sea of faces all around you
---Getting used to new rules and new routines
---Electing your own class officers
---Joining clubs and forming new friendships
---Becoming a real part of the school.

. . .For the Juniors it was
A year crowded with activities. You
---Wrote your first term paper
---Went to your Junior-Senior Prom
---Chose your class rings
---Burned the midnight oil studying for that big chemistry, geometry, or Latin exam
---Became more active in club activities
---And looked ahead to your senior year when you would be the "big wheels."

. . .For the seniors it was
A year packed full of memories
---Whether you were Football Sweetheart
Student Body President
Or just plain John or Mary Jones
1955-56 brought you
New experiences
Greater responsibilities
Big decisions.
---Now it was you and your friends who traded senior pictures
---You who were trying for that scholarship
---Your senior assembly and your very own star-dusted Senior Prom
---It was you walking down that seemingly endless aisle to receive the bit of paper that said your high school days were over
---And now it is you who are ready for bigger things
College
Marriage
A job
But whatever your futures hold,
Seniors of '56, '57, and '58---
THIS WAS YOUR YEAR. . .

"WE WON!" One picture is worth 10,000 words as gridiron hero, Craig Shuler, gazes into the eyes of Lynn Howard, head cheerleader. These are the little things, the "moments you'll remember."

To a Swell Guy
Lots of Good Luck
Always
Keith Parker

Best of luck to the most cute, neat, handsome, nice sweet, darling, dainty, adorable, lovely, beautiful, gorgeous, graceful little Slob in East High, and I hope you will get more in "57" than you did in "56".

Gary Moore

Best of luck
to a real swell guy
Hope two can get together
Love,
Kim Kidder
"57"

Best of luck
to one real slick
guy. (he thinks)

Dave Snyder
"57"

Everett -
It has been so much fun in Rome
room this year and I don't think I could have passed english
without your help.
The very best of luck
to a great guy.
Always
Allyann Olson
"57"

Everett
Best of luck to a fellow geometry student and may
you succeed in anything you attempt

Gary Houser

Best of luck
to the greatest guy
I've ever met in the future
